Dear Shareholder,

After a year of analysis, Regency has finalized a plan to enhance Regency's existing brand and position as the leading national operator and developer of grocery-anchored neighborhood centers. Regency will begin rolling out its plan this month with the introduction of a new name and a new logo (see below).

REGENCY CENTERS LOGO

We are changing our legal name to Regency Centers Corporation to more appropriately acknowledge the strength of Regency's brand in today's shopping center industry as the leading national owner and developer of grocery-anchored neighborhood centers. The name provides a strong foundation for building a common understanding of and a common voice for Regency, aligning our business objectives with audience perceptions.

In the coming months, you can expect to see additional initiatives by Regency to reinforce our new brand identity in the marketplace. The name change will have no impact on existing property names and, therefore, will not include expensive property pylon sign replacements, but will include, as an example, the placement of effective and inexpensive property welcome and thank you signs with our new brand identity. In fact, the total remaining cost of this initiative is less than $1 million.

A legal name change requires an amendment to our articles of incorporation, which requires a majority approval by our shareholders. Based upon the recommendation of our board of directors and management, our majority shareholder, Security Capital U.S. Realty, consented to our name change by written consent. Because the name change has been approved by our majority shareholder, you are not required to take any action and this is being sent to you for information purposes. Our stock symbol REG will not change.

We look forward to an exciting New Year for Regency Centers. Although the company's name is changing, our principal objective remains the same: to continue to create shareholder value through increasing returns on invested capital and solid funds from operations per share growth.

With regards,

Martin E. Stein, Jr.
Chairman and CEO

OUR PROPOSED NAME CHANGE

Regency Realty Corporation is pleased to announce that we intend to change our name from Regency Realty Corporation to Regency Centers Corporation.

We are sending this information statement on or about January ____, 2001 to all common shareholders of record as of January 2, 2001. Because the name change has been approved by our majority shareholder, you are not required to take any action.

AMENDMENT TO ARTICLES TO CHANGE NAME

An amendment to our articles of incorporation is required to change our name. Based upon the recommendation of our board of directors and management, our majority shareholder, Security Capital U.S. Realty, consented to our name change by written consent without a meeting on January ____, 2001. On January 2, 2001, the record date for this consent, we had outstanding and entitled to vote 56,898,171 shares of common stock and 1,487,507 shares of Series 2 Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Stock. The Series 2 Preferred Stock votes together with the common stock as a single class. Security Capital owned 34,273,236, or 58.7%, of the 58,385,678 shares entitled to vote as of the record date.

We will accomplish the name change by filing an amendment to our articles of incorporation with the Florida Secretary of State on or after _____, 2001. The text of the amendment is attached as Exhibit A.

We reserve the right, without further action by our shareholders, not to proceed with the name change if our board of directors determines that the name change is not in the best interest of Regency or its shareholders before filing the amendment with the Florida Secretary of State.
