Regency Centers Ranks 6th on America's Most Responsible Companies List by Newsweek

January 29, 2024

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Jan. 29, 2024 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- For the fifth consecutive year, Regency Centers Corporation ("Regency Centers" or the "Company") has earned a coveted spot on Newsweek's prestigious list of America's Most Responsible Companies. 2024 marks a significant achievement as the Company's ranking improved to sixth place overall, and first place in the "Real Estate and Housing" industry.

The ranking evaluates companies' corporate responsibility through the lens of ESG, which encompasses Environment, Social, and Corporate Governance initiatives. In collaboration with global research and data firm Statista, Newsweek conducted a thorough analysis that considered more than 30 metrics. Additionally, an extensive survey was conducted among U.S. residents to gauge the corporate responsibility reputation of each company.

"Regency Centers takes great pride in our best-in-class corporate responsibility program, the principles of which are foundational to our corporate strategy and are embodied throughout our organization," said Lisa Palmer, President and Chief Executive Officer. "We appreciate the recognition of a top 10 spot in this important ranking, which we believe is a true testament to our commitment to working and acting responsibly in all areas of our business."
